

Statement of Partner Eligibility

This page goes with the Form 183A. Here the applicant must disclose any relationship they have with the company. Such as ownership (full or partial), employment, paid consulting, membership on a governance board, or family/marital relationship to someone with such interests in the company.

The funding agencies are expecting that the applicant is at arms length from the industrial partner.